

Education Visits Policy

2026-29

Next review: June 2029

This policy has been approved by the Local Governing Body on 13th May 2026

Introduction

This policy covers all off-site visits and activities organised through the school and for which the Governing Body and Headteacher are responsible. This ranges from walks around the locality to residential visits of several days in duration. It includes Outdoor and Adventurous Activities. This policy has been developed to ensure that the school is compliant statutory, local and best practice guidance, including:

- Health and Safety: Advice for Schools (DfE 2014)
- OEAP National Guidance <https://oeapng.info/>
- Oxfordshire County Council policies
- Refer to Coronavirus advice //oeapng.info/-coronavirus/

Rationale

All Saints School seeks to ensure that every pupil has access to a wide range of educational experiences as an entitlement to support and enrich their education. As part of this entitlement, we recognise the significant educational value of visits and activities which take place away from the immediate school environment.

All Saints School aims to become an educational environment in which all members of the school community can thrive, regardless of race, religion, culture, gender or individual need. We intend to apply this aim to the planning and management of all visits and off-site activities.

Our school curriculum intent highlights the importance of hands-on, practical and explorative learning which fosters curiosity. At All Saints School outdoor learning is an integral part of our whole-school approach to education and the curriculum. We recognise the benefits for pupil achievement, personal development and physical and mental wellbeing. It develops interpersonal skills, team building and broadens their horizons. Outdoor learning involves first-hand real-life, challenging experiences and so contributes to the richness of learning across all subjects. Memorable experiences inspire creative writing and lead to memorable learning and skills for life.

Outdoor learning is also a powerful process for promoting personal and social development, including:

- Developing and discovering interests and talents;
- Developing character (including risk taking, resilience, confidence, and independence);
- Knowing how to keep physically and mentally healthy;
- Becoming responsible active citizens.

This is recognised by both the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) and the Department for Education (DfE): “HSE fully recognises that learning outside the classroom helps to bring the curriculum to life – it provides deeper subject learning and increases self-confidence.

It also helps pupils develop their risk awareness and prepares them for their future working lives. Striking the right balance between protecting pupils from risk and allowing them to learn from school trips has been a challenge for many schools, but getting this balance right is essential for realising all these benefits in practice”. (School trips and outdoor learning activities: Tackling the health and safety myths, HSE).

“School employers should always take a common sense and proportionate approach, remembering that in schools risk assessment and risk management are tools to enable children to undertake activities safely, and not prevent activities from taking place. Sensible risk management cannot remove risk altogether but it should avoid needless or unhelpful paperwork”. (The Department for Education’s advice on health and safety for Schools updated February 2014)

The management of visits and off-site activities places particular responsibilities for the health, safety and welfare of all participants on the Governing Body, Head teacher, Educational Visits Coordinator, the party leader, members of staff and volunteers, pupils and parents. The school also has responsibilities to other members of the public and to third parties. This policy on visits and off-site activities therefore complements the wider school health and safety policy. Planning for visits reflects Public health advice and complies with current Government guidance about coronavirus.

It is a priority of this school that all visits and off-site activities are safe, well-managed and educationally beneficial. Visits are an integral part of the work of this school and have clear learning/development intent which is specified on each risk assessment form. Visits are reviewed and evaluated, and good practice is shared.
